

National Public Health Week
April 1-7, 2013 • www.nphw.org

NATIONAL PUBLIC HEALTH WEEK April 1-7, 2013

Brookline Department of Public Health
11 Pierce Street, Brookline, MA 02445
617-730-2300 www.brooklinema.gov

Tuesday, April 2, 2013

What is a Geriatrician? Why Do I Need One? Robert Schreiber, MD, Hebrew Senior Life, Brookline Senior Center, 93 Winchester Street. 1:00 PM – 2:00 PM. Free.

Break Free from Depression. A parenting workshop on teen mental health and depression awareness. Roberts Dubb Auditorium, BHS, 115 Greenough St., 7:00 PM (Free, Open to Brookline parents, adult community members.)

Thursday, April 4, 2013

Smoke Free Apt./Condo Workshops. Free seminar on how to make your residential rental property or condominium building smoke free. Offered three times on April 4. Brookline Health Department, 11 Pierce St. Noon – 1pm; 3-4pm; 6:30-7:30 pm. Details: Wesley Chin, 617-730-2333; wchin@brooklinema.gov.

Friday, April 5, 2013

Hoarding: What Municipalities Have Learned from Teaming. Panelists include Pat Maloney, Brookline Assistant Director of Public Health, Event in Northborough. Info and Registration. Denise Baker, MA Municipal Association, 617-426-7272, dbaker@mma.org.

Saturday, April 6, 2013

Rabies Clinic. A chance to bring your dog or cat to be vaccinated against rabies. All pets must be brought on a leash or in a cage by a person at least 14 years old. ($10 Fee charged) Town Hall, 333 Washington St, Brookline. 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM.

Wellness in the Village. Demonstrations, talks, giveaways, showcasing more than 15 health and wellness practitioners and teachers located in Brookline Village. Free, Town Hall, 333 Washington St., 1:30 PM – 4:00 PM.

Sunday, April 7, 2013

Models for Senior Housing Development. Town-sponsored forum of developer/owners of senior housing, discussing different models for housing with and without services, and opportunities and challenges of developing in Brookline. (Free) Holiday Inn (Whitney Hall), 1200 Beacon St. 2:00 PM – 5:00 PM

SAVE THE DATE – Thursday, May 2

SENIOR HEALTH FAIR
BROOKLINE SENIOR CENTER.
Brookline Senior Center, 93
Winchester Street
10:00 am – 3:00 pm.

